

Things To Do Near Eight Acres Hotel, Elgin:

1. Explore Elgin Cathedral

- Known as the "Lantern of the North," this historic 13th-century ruin offers an insight into Scotland's religious history and provides beautiful architecture and scenic views

2. Visit Johnston's of Elgin

- Just a short distance from the hotel, Johnston's of Elgin is a renowned woolen mill where visitors can tour the facility, learn about cashmere and wool production, and browse a range of luxury textiles in the shop

3. Glen Moray Distillery

- For whisky lovers, Glen Moray Distillery offers tours and tastings of their single malt Scotch. It's a great way to dive into Scotland's whisky heritage right in Elgin

4. Duffus Castle

- A 15-minute drive from Elgin, this medieval ruin is perfect for a short excursion into Scotland's past, offering picturesque views and a tranquil atmosphere

5. Beaches at Lossiemouth

- Lossiemouth, known as the "Jewel of Moray," is just a 10-minute drive from the hotel. Its sandy beaches are ideal for a day of relaxation, with the possibility of dolphin watching or scenic coastal walks

6. Elgin Museum

- Scotland's oldest independent museum, the Elgin Museum showcases the area's archaeology, geology, and history, with fascinating exhibits that appeal to all ages

7. Pluscarden Abbey

- Nestled in a beautiful valley, Pluscarden Abbey is an active Benedictine monastery where visitors can witness monastic life and explore its historic buildings and peaceful surroundings

These attractions make for a variety of experiences, from historic explorations to whisky tasting and beach outings, allowing guests at Eight Acres Hotel to enjoy the best of Moray's culture, history, and nature!